OXFORD INTERNATIONAL ENGLISH IN ITALY SUMMER CAMPS COVID-19 PROTOCOL (AS AT 04-MAY 2021)

The villages will follow all regional and national government COVID-19 regulations that are required at the time.
Villages are open to other users at the same time as our groups.

COVID TESTING

- All Oxford International Students must arrive with a negative test (Lateral Flow Antigen) taken a maximum of 72 hours before arrival at the centre.

All other sports team and other groups present on campus must arrive with negative COVID test. As per the Italian law, there is no requirement for other guests (such as family groups etc) to arrive with a negative test. This law applies to hotels and holiday villages.

TEMPERATURE TESTING

- All organisations on campus must take the temperature of all participants at least once a day and keep a register, which will be checked with Bella Italia every day.

MASKS

- Masks are to be worn indoors.

SOCIAL DISTANCING

- All dining rooms, theatres, classrooms, bedrooms and other indoor spaces will respect one metre social distancing rules and one-way systems of entry and exit or other as required at the time.
- Swimming Pools will be available on a reduced number basis.
- Sport and activity sessions will not be mixed with non Oxford International people.

INCREASED HYGIENE

- Hand gel will be available at all entry and exit points to the buildings and dining areas.
- There will be an increased level of daily cleaning.

COVID SYMPTOMS

If any student feels unwell with COVID symptom, or has a higher than normal temperature reading, the following specific protocol will apply:

- The student(s) will be tested
  - If the test shows a positive result, the student will remain in isolation in his/her bedroom until either a negative test result or the parents / guardians will be asked to come and collect and take home.
  - If the test shows a positive result, room-mates and class-mates will also be tested, as above.
  - If the test shows a negative result, the student can resume the normal programme when fit to do so.

The above is subject to change according to future discussion with Bella Italia Villages or according to changes in government advice etc.
